

In the small town

of Jingle–Jungle there is a school for the animals of the jungle.

Mr. Elmer, the elephant, is the principal of the elementary school. Mr. Elmer loves his school and the children who go there.

Miss Ella is his secretary. She works with him in the school office. They both help the teachers at their school.

Mr. Elmer is very smart. He knows how to help the children and teachers.

Questions About the Story

1. What did each student in Miss Lily's class do that kept them from doing their work?

Happy Hyena	Tink the Turtle
Penny Panda	Olivia Owl
Mack the Mouse	Leonard the Lion
Zach the Zebra

2. What did Mr. Elmer do to help solve Miss Lily's problem?

3. How did Brainey Butterfly help Miss Lily's class?

4. Describe how each student solved their focus problem?

Happy Hyena	Tink the Turtle
Penny Panda	Olivia Owl
Mack the Mouse	Leonard the Lion
Zach the Zebra

5. Can you think of something else each animal could do?

6. Why did each animal have to try something different to solve their focus problem?

7. Which of the animals in Miss Lily's class are you most like?

8. What can you try to help you focus better in school?

My Plan to Focus

Name _____ Date _____

Distractions Word Bank

Noise in the room.	Others are talking	Noise in the hallway.
I play with things in my desk.	My friends.	Work is too hard.
I don't understand the work.	I daydream.	I worry about home.
People are picking on me.	Others are walking around.	Worried about something.

My Problem	My Plan
It is hard for me to focus when:	When this happens, I need to:
It is also hard for me to focus when:	When this happens, I need to:

After you fill this out, tell it to a partner.
Then share your answers with the whole class.