

How many of you have ever been picked on? Did you know that there is a pecking order among chickens?

The Farmer saw the new chicken's head. It was bruised and cut.

The Farmer covered the sores with band-aids and said, "I think I'll call you the Band-Aid Chicken!"

Are you going to be like the Band-Aid Chicken, who had the courage to stop bad behavior and who helped make her world a better place?
